

#PerformNow – Singing Workshop

Singers easily lose 50% of their abilities when they perform in front of an audience. No matter how good you sing in your bathroom, there is something new to practice before you go on stage.

My goal is to help you identify what elements affect our public performance as singers, give you tools to MENTALLY, PHYSICALLY and VOCALLY prepare, and overall improve your performing skills.

Why should YOU be taking this workshop ?

This workshop is for you:

- If you are a singer;
- If you are willing to grow as a performer;
- If you are ready to challenge your skills in a constructive positive environment;
- If you are looking for hands-on, tools and guides you can use on your own after the workshop to prepare your next performance.

Why performance matters to me?

I believe singing can make a better world. YES I DO. Because

- Everyone has his/her voice and can make a difference if he/she makes it heard;
- Singers have access to a unique instrument to share vibes and emotions;
- That instrument is powerful, moving and universal, whatever the culture, background, gender, language, color, age, ...

Who am I?

My name is Violaine Dehin. I am a 40 years old singer and performer. I have an extensive experience coaching singers into performance. I teach vocal technique as a vocal coach at the Institute for Vocal Advancement.
